WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1898.

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, AUGUST 8, 1903.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

CONSTANT.
I love the joke, the dear old joke,
The joke of long ago;
That gibe the wandering minstrel spoke
When first I saw a show.
Ah, do not chide me though I sit
In silence 'mid the chaff;
My feelings are amid this wit,
Too reverent for a laugh.
My grandsire told it years ago,
With venerable glee;
His grandsire unto him made known
That gentle pleasantry
It was my father's favorite fling.
Whenever that jest he'd tell,
My mother bade us dance and sing,
Because he felt so well.
And some time, when the day is done,
That quip I may recite
To cheer a cherished cherub son
Ere he retires at night.
For I am sure that sally has
The qualities to last
As far into the future as
It's traveled through the past.
And that is why I sit and sigh
'Mid the applauding throng;
I greet it with a tear-dimmed eye—
That joke I've loved so long.
And plays may come and plays may go;
I still attend with zest,
For there I'll always meet, I know,
That ever welcome jest.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. E. J. CLEGG & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, etc.

Those who cried, "We are unable to buy a new dress," are now walking around in Dame Fashion's newest creations. Your most liberal response was our greatest flattery of this sale.
